Compared to last week's market, all weight class price averages of the front-end feeder steers and heifers finished mostly firm with the exception of the plainer classes which ended from $2 to $4 lower. The slaughter cows and bulls figures today mostly reflected last week's market but we are witnessing more of the lower yielding cows being offered.

Texas pasture ratings have improved more than 30% due to last weeks rains and have slowed the movement of feeder calves to the market arena. Feeder calf demand today was good with more buyer emphasis being placed on the animal quality. Both buyer trade and interest were strong today.
